Dear School Head/Administrator:

On behalf of the Private Education Assistance Committee (PEAC), I would like to invite you to be part of the second batch of Filipino education leaders who will take an executive program on “Transforming Education Leaders through Effective Policy Reforms” to be delivered by the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy.

With the continuing reforms in the country’s education system, it is important that the education leaders, particularly those in private education, are able to respond to the changing landscape by using the essential tools in policy analysis and evidence-based policy development, among others. The program can be downloaded from peac.org.ph.

The Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy is part of the National University of Singapore (NUS), a world-class institution consistently ranked among the best in Asia and in the world. It has a dedicated faculty and senior practitioners who bring relevant real-life policy experience. The NUS President Professor Tan Eng Chye has confirmed his participation as one of the speakers during the five-day executive program.

The program is scheduled on October 22-26, 2018 at the Bukit Timah Campus of the National University of Singapore. There is a course fee of Php115,000.00, which includes course materials, certificate, and lunch for five days. The course fee does not cover the participant’s airfare, accommodation, and living expenses in Singapore.

Limited slots are available. To reserve a slot, please send a letter expressing interest to join the executive program on or before September 15, 2018. Indicate in the letter your complete name, designation, name of institution/organization, and contact details and email the letter to jenna.alcala@peac.org.ph. Please wait for an acknowledgement email from the PEAC National Secretariat before proceeding to the payment procedure.

Reserved slot will be considered final upon receipt of the payment. Please deposit payment in peso to the bank account below and email the scanned copy of the deposit slip to the PEAC National Secretariat. Deadline of payment is September 30, 2018.
